

LIFE is a non-denominational charity dedicated to upholding the utmost respect for human life from fertilisation (conception). Our aims are:

- to relieve poverty, sickness and distress of pregnant women and unsupported mothers, including accommodating women made homeless by pregnancy
- to protect and preserve good health
- to educate the public in all matters relating to pregnancy

Founded in 1970, LIFE:

- has approaching 100 Care Centres nationwide providing free pregnancy tests and professional, confidential counselling
- provides Education teams ready to go into schools and tell the truth about 'life' issues
- is the largest provider of supported housing for homeless, pregnant women
- provides pro-life fertility treatment
- speaks out on 'life' issues

Since we were founded in 1970 we have provided practical and loving help to over 1 million women, men and children.
